

5th Avenue Christmas Walking Tour

A festive, family-friendly walking route to see the best Christmas displays along Fifth Avenue in New York City.

Starting Point: Rockefeller Center (49th–50th Streets)

Admire the iconic Rockefeller Center Christmas Tree and stroll through the Channel Gardens before heading onto Fifth Avenue.

Walking Stops

- Saks Fifth Avenue – Holiday light show from 5 PM- 11 AM every 10 min. and window displays (611 5th Ave)
- Cartier – Elegant gift-wrapped holiday façade (653 5th Ave)
 - Bergdorf Goodman – Artistic and whimsical holiday windows (754 5th Ave)
- Luxury Flagships – Louis Vuitton, Dior, Tiffany & Co. (57th–60th Streets)
- Optional: Central Park South – Winter stroll and city views

Tips for Your Walk

- Visit after sunset for the best lighting displays
- Dress warmly and wear comfortable walking shoes
 - Weekdays are less crowded than weekends
 - Bring a camera or phone for photos
- Get hot chocolate from Glacé Rockefeller Center truck (if the lines are too long get some from Cafe Grumpy)

This walk covers about 10 blocks and takes about 1–2 hours depending on crowd levels and stops

